MS Excel Macros (VBA/Programming) (1024)

Duration: 1 Day

This course is intended for the accomplished users of MS Excel who are Membership:

looking to expand their knowledge of the application to a higher level.

Objectives: On completion of this course delegates will be able:

• To record a macro

To edit, format and navigate the recorded code

• To make recorded code more easily accessible via worksheet/toolbar

buttons

• To know when to use appropriate looping structures in code

To write user-defined functions

To write interactive macros

· To debug and test code

with or without the use of the course notes.

Structure: Each course will consist of 4 sessions divided into modules of work.

Content: Practicalities

Code overview

Variables

Recording code

Macro accessibility

Ranges

Programming structures

Interactive macros

Debugging and testing

Pre-requisites: Delegates should be confident with the skills covered in our MS Excel

Foundation & Intermediate (1021 & 1022 & 1023) courses

Contact: 101 SystemWorks Ltd 0121 681 6550

07973 507371

les@101systemworks.co.uk